

The agreement

By taking part in the RO University Fair 2026, you are agreeing to this Code of Conduct. This outlines how we expect all RO students to behave at the RO University Fair. We do this to protect everyone taking part in the RO University Fair 2026.

I agree:

- To be responsible for my own behaviour when using the vFairs platform where the RO University Fair will be hosted. This includes the resources I access and the language I use.
- I will not search for or share material considered to be offensive or illegal. If I accidentally come across any such material, I must report it immediately to the RO Central Team via the help desk or by email.
- I will not give out any personal information via the RO University Fair platform, such as name, phone number, address, social media username(s), or any information considered to be personal.
- I will not update my profile on the RO University Fair platform.
- I will not give out any personal information relating to any other person.
- I will not reveal my passwords to anyone.
- I will not arrange a face-to-face meeting with someone I meet online at the RO University Fair.
- If I am concerned or upset about anything I see on the RO University Fair platform or any communications that I receive, I must report it to the RO Central Team as soon as possible.

I understand that my use of the RO University Fair platform, supplied by vFairs and run by RO, will be monitored and logged and can be accessed by the organiser. I understand that these rules are to keep me and others safe and that if I choose not to follow them Realising Opportunities may contact my parents/carers and/or that my access to online activity will be suspended.

When you made your application to RO, you also agreed to this code of conduct which you must adhere by.

If you have any questions about this, please contact the RO Central Team.
